

DATE: June 28, 2006

Contact: Scott Olin Schmidt
(310) 498-0033

Media Advisory:

Only Openly Gay Republican Congressional Candidate in U.S. Joins Arnold at Log Cabin Dinner in L.A.

What: The only openly-gay male Republican running for federal office in the United States, Peter Hankwitz will be available for interviews and comments at historic gathering of gay republicans in Los Angeles.

Who: Peter Hankwitz

- The only openly-gay male Republican running for Congress in the United States
- Republican candidate for California's 27th Congressional District; Running against five-term incumbent, Rep. Brad Sherman (D)

When: June 29, 2006, 6:30 PM

Where: California Log Cabin Republicans Dinner with Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger

- Hollywood Renaissance Hotel -- 1755 N. Highland Avenue, Los Angeles, CA;

Why: This is the first time in the history of California that a sitting Republican governor has attended the gay Republican (Log Cabin) dinner

###

According to the California Targetbook, in the 2003 Recall election Governor Schwarzenegger won 54% of the votes and Republican Candidates won 2/3 in the 27th Congressional District.

If Schwarzenegger is going to win in November, he will have to carry the 27th Congressional District again—and potentially lift "Schwarzenegger Republican" candidates like Peter Hankwitz with him.

For More Information: <http://www.hankwitzforcongress.com/>